LIQUORS, CIGARS.

Come to the Fair.
Hurrah for the Fair, the old farmer shouts,
As Dobbin is driven up close to the door;
And pumpkins and squashes, and pigs in the cart,
All gathered with care from the old farmers store
Then come to the fair let us see what you have;
We've a welcome for all, maid, matron and sire,
Bring your horses and daughters your oxen and sons,
Our motto is "Forward," and forward means higher.
And when to our city the pride of the West,
And viewing its sights and noble works rare,
You will want a Cigar for a small copper cent,
And add to its interest you feel in the Fair
Its needless to tell to point out the place,
Our Cigars are selected with excellent care
Then remember our store with its "native" to front,
And glance at our card when you visit the Fair

FREMONT MEETING!

CHARLES C. WILLIAMS,

OF JANESVILLE, WILL SPEAK AT THE FREMONT CAMP, ON

This, Saturday, Evening, at 7½ o'clock.

By Order of the Executive Committee

Milwaukee, Oct. 24th, 1856.

Meeting at the Camp To-Night!

We are very glad to learn that Mr. CHAS. C. WILLIAMS, who is now travelling our State under the direction of the State Committee, will speak in Milwaukee to-night.

Of all the speakers brought out by the present issue, few any where, certainly none in this State, have taken a better rank, or acquired a more enviable reputation as popular orators than Mr. WILLIAMS.

His speeches at different points have been universally conceded to be the most effective and soul stirring that have been made, and we are very glad that he has come here, and believe that his speech to-night will rouse young blood and stir old bones among us to a warmer life and better action.

He speaks at the Camp at half past seven to-night.

FOURTH WARD REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.—At the Fourth Ward Meeting on Thursday evening, the following persons were appointed the District Committee, and also to act as delegates to the County Convention, should any be held:—HIRAM BOND, J. H. TESCH, JOEL KNEELAND.

The following Vigilance Committee was also appointed:

Jonathan Crouch, J. F. Birchard, E. Shaw, Joel Kneeland, John Ogden, Sylvester Pettibone, Michael Maloney, John H. Tesch, S. Babcock, Daniel Shaw, Charles Barnecroft, A. K. Williams, Joseph Sprague, S. Morse, C. F. Duval, D. J. Miller.

RUFFIANISM IN THE POST OFFICES.—We were shown yesterday the envelope of a letter which was mailed at the Post Office in this city September 27th, directed to Muscoda, Grant County.—It was ten days in reaching its destination; and being a "Fremont envelope," with a portrait of Mr. Fremont on the face, the picture was defaced, and the words "Politeness of the Border Ruffians" written under it. We do not think that any of the employees in the office here would be guilty of such an act, but whosoever did it is just scoundrel enough to open the letter.

"OFFICIAL" FALSIFICATION.—The Madison Argus, official organ of the Buchaniers and "the Party," says that the official returns show "a democratic majority in Pennsylvania on State ticket of about 12,000," and in Indiana "of about 10,000." Both statements are grossly false. In Pennsylvania the majority is less than 5000, and in Indiana 5000. These lies, however, are necessary to keep up the courage of the Buchaniers.

From Our New York Correspondent.

NEW YORK, Oct 21.

The tidings from Pennsylvania, unfavorable as they are, and those from Indiana, still less, do not shake the firm resolve, and will not abate the determined efforts of the Republican freemen here and hereabouts. Pennsylvania, we know, if any money, or fraud even, could accomplish it, was to be made to go, in appearance at least, in favor of Buchanan; and money without stint, and fraud without shame, have been resorted to, and yet with what result? The precise returns are not yet in, and therein, perhaps, more fraud is in operation, but if the majority, after all the appliances, be not greater than four or five thousand, in a vote so large that the city of Philadelphia alone has increased her poll some eleven thousand over any preceding poll, what may not be hoped from a thorough, energetic canvass between this time and November, on the part of the friends of Freedom—from a more perfect organization—and not least, from the reaction of disgust which honest men of the Buchanan party must feel, at the open and corrupt prostitution of the right of suffrage. What, especially, will be the effect of the indignation in the rural districts, when they see the votes of the hard working, honest yeomanry, nullified and made worthless by the hired votes of the refuse of the cities?

Of Indiana we hear no certain particulars. I knew that in the Southern portion of the State the Pro-Slavery interest was strong, but I could not believe it possible that a Free State, so near the scene of outrage in Kansas, could, on such an issue as this contest presents, give forth an uncertain voice for Freedom. I could not believe that men who, like Cumback, had stood forth in Congress, unflinching for the Right, could be disavowed and deserted at home, when the only real point in the controversy turns upon that Right. I am disappointed at the loss of Congressmen in Indiana, for the House of Representatives, after all, is the main hope of free institutions. While the House is truly the representative of the people of the country, all is safe, and therefore the concern with which I see any man thrown out, who has been true to his great trust.

I cannot believe that the people of Indiana, or of any other Free State, if made aware of the true questions now undergoing judgment at the bar of the people, could make a mistake as to their duty and honor. I prefer to believe that there has been want of adequate effort and organization in those districts we have lost, rather than believe that the people are indifferent, much more consenting to the spread of Slavery. But what though these elections are of less favorable augury than was hoped? What, but that each one of us must bend himself with renewed energy to the conflict in November—that taking courage from disaster, and plucking from the nettle danger the flower safety, we go on to triumph. There is "no attribute of the Divinity," as Thomas Jefferson well said, that in the contest between the extension and the restriction of Slavery, can take sides with the extensionists. In this State we shall triumph largely, and also elsewhere, if we be only true to our cause, true to ourselves, and true to one another. The injunction of the Cumean Sybil to the disheartened Æneas, in the midst of difficulties, is the injunction for our side everywhere, and if heeded and carried out, will tend with us, as it did with the Latin Chief, to eventual and permanent triumph—

"Tu ne cede malis, sed contra audentior ito,"

"Yield not to wrong, but press more boldly on." Be that our device and we shall carry the day in November; for to fraud and corrupt expenditure there is a limit—to the effect of manly resolves and proportionate effort, there is no limit.

We are enjoying a most delightful Autumn; bright, brilliant days and cool nights. The frost has come, in plenty, to kill what remained about our Quarantine, and on Long Island, of the miasma of Yellow Fever, and all lingering apprehensions that this scourge would yet visit our city, is at an end. We have had a Providential escape, and the experience of this summer has resolved forever the question of the foreign origin of yellow fever, and of the efficacy of firmly exercised Quarantine Laws to exclude it. But for our quarantine regulations, stringently carried out, it would have been scarcely possible for us to escape, and once introduced into the city the spread of the disease would have been fearful, for there was, and is, an inefficiency in our city Gov't., which lays us at the mercy of any pestilence. It is inconceivable how the people who pay and suffer in this most abused and ill-governed metropolis, can permit such abominable misrule to continue, yet so it seems fated to do; for the opposition to the present Mayor, Fernando Wood, the head of all the evil, is cut up among four other candidates. Hence, unless some concentration can be effected before the day of election, this bold, bad man will be re-elected by a plurality vote, that will fall far short of a majority of all the votes.

THE ECLIPSE OF THINGS.—We notice that Mr. J. H. WELLS is nominated for the State Senate by the democrats of the district composed of the counties of SAUK, ADAMS, and JUNEAU. There is a fitness in the nomination which we are glad to see. We like to see a game played boldly, and the democrats of that district have done it. Mr. WELLS is the gentleman who figures so extensively in the testimony before the Committee of Investigation in relation to the election frauds last fall. He was then a resident of Berlin, Marquette Co., and was selected by the wire-workers at Madison as the fittest person to go to Waupaca and get the "80 more votes, that must be had for Barstow, cost what they would." His operations in that expedition, his consultations with "Long Sealions," &c., &c., are given in the testimony which we published two or three days since.

We are glad that Mr. Wells has been nominated, for we are anxious to see how many men there are in the counties of Sauk, Adams and Juneau who will deliberately record their names on the poll lists, as endorsing the gross and criminal frauds in which he was engaged.

The Allies Rejoicing.

The N. Y. Journal of Commerce, a fierce Buchanan paper, says:

"It is difficult to say which party in this city, the Buchanan or the Fillmore men, received the returns from Pennsylvania with the greatest enthusiasm. Universally, they congratulated each other on the rout of "the common enemy." The fact is, as a general thing, the Fillmore men desire, as the chief object, to see Fremont thoroughly whipped, and whichever candidate can do it in the best style, is their man."

The alliance between the Buchaniers and Know Nothings grows daily more intimate.—They no longer conceal their partiality for each other, and are united by the common "bonds" of opposition to the Republican party and principles and love of Slavery extension.

The Frauds in Indiana.

The following paragraphs from the Indiana State Journal, show how the democrats carried that State:

In Tippecanoe county a company of three hundred Irish voted, who were tracked from Warren county, where they voted again, and thence to Lafayette, where they voted again. But they were off immediately, before they could be arrested.

In Allen county, the following well authenticated fact may serve as a sample of operations:

"A party of nine Irishmen, in a two-horse-wagon, voted in the morning at Jefferson township; in the afternoon they ascended the Goshen road, and crossed over the Lima road, where the Washington township polls were held, there voted again, and then proceeded to this city, voted a third time, and then went to Adams township. This makes twenty-seven votes certain out of nine."

P. MCNALLY is the democratic candidate for the State Senate in the Northwest district, (28th.) In the St. Croix Assembly district, J. A. MARELAND is nominated by the democrats.

WM. M. MOSES is the democratic nominee for Assembly in the Ashippun (Jefferson Co.) district.

The Electoral Ticket.

We notice that some of our Republican exchanges print at the head of their columns, only the name of the candidate for Elector from their own district.

Care must be taken that, ON THE BALLOT, the names OF ALL THE ELECTORS are printed, and they should be printed in full, to avoid mistakes.

We trust that this matter will be carefully attended to, as mistakes might lose us the State.

Pennsylvania Election.

Official returns from all but two counties, Elk and McKean, in Pennsylvania, show a democratic majority on Canal Commissioner of only 3,699 in an aggregate vote of some 450,000. The two remaining counties are reported at 550 opposition majority, which will leave the democrats only 3,000 ahead on the State ticket, while on the Congressional vote the Republicans are ahead. As to the Legislature, the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin divides it thus:

	Democrats.	Union.
Senate - -	15	18
House - - -	48	52
On Joint Ballot,	63	70

As a United States Senator is to be chosen this winter, the defeat of the Buchaniers in the Legislature is all important.

Of the prospect ahead the Pittsburgh Journal thus confidently speaks:

We have no doubt at all that all the official returns will further reduce the Democratic majority. But as the figures stand now, the increase of our vote in Allegheny and Butler alone will wipe it out; whilst the Friends' vote in Chester, Delaware, Bucks and Lancaster, &c, which was not cast at all, will give us the victory by a large majority.

The New York Courier & Enquirer of the 21st inst., has the following cheering advices upon the same point:

The true men of Pennsylvania, opposed to the Buchanieering Democracy, with unwavering resolution and high-hearted confidence, are closing their ranks for a new charge against the enemy. A new electoral ticket has been prepared, calculated to unite the votes of all men sincerely hostile to the Cincinnati platform. It may be found in another column, with the manifesto of the committees from which it originated. We are assured by those fresh from the field of action that everything is suspicious for a successful result. The professed Fillmore men, who are really for Buchanan, have already harmed us to the extent of their power. It is perfectly known that six thousand of them, including their leaders, voted at the late election for the Democratic ticket; at last disclosed and understood, they are impotent for further mischief. It is also well known that great numbers of Democrats who, for local reasons, voted this ticket, are determined to cast their votes for John C. Fremont. Thousands of Democratic votes, too, imported from the contiguous States, will not be available in Pennsylvania in November, for they will be needed in their own localities. The Republicans have also no small strength among the Quakers which has yet to appear at the ballot-box. In short, the opponents of the slave-driving and filibustering Democracy have every encouragement to look for a victory, if true to themselves and their cause.—And they are preparing for a fresh onset with an ardor and concentration of purpose worthy of all praise, and that bespeak a glorious issue.—Heaven speed them!

P. S.—The telegraph last night brought us the full official vote of Pennsylvania. Here it is, on Canal Commissioner:

Scott (Buchanan)	212,880
Cochrane (Anti),	210,112

Democratic majority only 2,774 in a poll of 422,998 votes! Evidently the Buchaniers have got out, this time, by the tightest kind of a squeeze. Let them look out for the popular thunder in November!

As compared with last year's vote in Pennsylvania, when the democrats elected their Canal Commissioner by 11,536 majority over the "fusion" nominee, they have lost now nearly nine thousand. And this in Mr. Buchanan's own State, and in the preliminary skirmish which his partizans spent a quarter of a million of dollars and polled some ten or fifteen thousand illegal votes, in order to carry.

The Premium on Colored Photographs.

We have the following letter from Messrs. JOHNSON & FULLER, artists of Madison:

MADISON, Oct. 23d.

EDITORS OF MILWAUKEE SENTINEL:—Gentlemen:—We see in the list of premiums awarded as quoted in the Sentinel gives Messrs. Ford and Seeley the first premium on colored Photographs which is certainly a mistake of somebodies. We were told at the time of the Fair that the first premium on colored Photographs was given to us, and have since been told by two members of that committee that they were unanimous in giving us that premium.

By examining the book of the Committee you will see the mistake, and doubtless will comprehend the injustice done us in consequence.

By making a proper correction you will very much oblige, Yours truly,

JOHNSON & FULLER.

We have taken pains to examine the books again, and find that our friends at Madison are right, and that in the haste of drawing off the list for publication, we made the mistake, and take all the blame upon ourselves accordingly.—The list of premiums in that department should read as follows:

Best Daguerrotypes, H. S. BROWN, Mil.
Best plain photographs, ditto.
2d best Ambrotypes, ditto.
Best colored photographs, Johnson & Fuller. Madison.
2d best daguerrotypes, ditto.
Ambrotypes, dig, recommended, do.
Best Ambrotypes, Ford & Seeley, Mil.
2d best plain photographs, ditto.
2d best colored photographs, Fowler & HOPE, Mil.

NOMINATIONS.—In Sauk Co., the democrats have nominated for the State Senate, J. H. WELLS; and for Assemblyman in the Baraboo District, M. C. WAITE.

In Iowa county (with Richland) L. W. JOINER is the Republican candidate for the Senate.

In Iowa county the Republicans have nominated THOMAS STEVENS for Assembly in the North district, and THOMAS S. ALLEN in the South district.

LEVI GRANT is the democratic candidate for Assembly in the Newark district, Rock Co.

In Kenosha county, LATHROP BURGESS is the Republican, and DUDLEY CASS the Buchanan candidate for Assembly in the West district.

In Walworth county J. R. SPOONER is the Republican candidate for Assembly in the Elkhorn district, and SAM'L W. VOORHEES in the Delavan district.

A Member of the Cabinet on the Brooks Assault.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22, 1856.

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to acknowledge your polite and very gratifying invitation to a public dinner to be given by the people of the Fourth Congressional District, to their Representative, Hon. P. S. Brooks.

It would give me much pleasure, on any occasion, to meet you, fellow-citizens of the Fourth District of South Carolina; and the gratification would be materially heightened by the opportunity to witness their approbation of a Representative whom I hold in such high regard and esteem. Circumstances will not permit me, however, to be with you, as invited, and I have only to express to you my sympathy with the feeling which prompts the sons of Carolina to welcome the return of a brother who has been the subject of villification, misrepresentation, and persecution, because he resented a libelous assault upon the reputation of their mother.

With my thanks to you and those whom you represent, for your kind remembrance of me, I am, very truly, your friend and fellow-citizen,

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

ARTHUR SIMPKINS, JAMES GILLAM, and others.

Here is the "official" endorsement, by a member of the PIERCE Cabinet, of Brooks' brutal and cowardly assault upon Senator SUMNER. The Buchanier who writes it is an avowed secessionist and disloyal to the Constitution and the Union.

Northern Democratic Sentiment.

Not long ago, the then democratic organ at Syracuse, N. Y., refused longer to support and endorse Border Ruffian Democracy, and came out for Fremont, whereupon "the party" forthwith started another organ. Its character, and the genuine sentiments of the Buchanan democracy, may be judged of by the following paragraph from a late number.

"Standing upon the ample planks of the Cincinnati Platform, we are not only the apologists, but the advocates and defenders of that peculiar institution which the commercial rivals of our country have discovered to be one of the great sources of our prosperity, and against which they have, for generations of time, levelled the insidious attacks of their diplomacy. And yet we stand upon that same platform, and contend for every grain and the little of dignity to which every grain and tittle of manhood is entitled.—While we claim for American Slavery, that it is and has been, one of the chief bulwarks of our liberty—while we claim that it has ameliorated the condition of the slave, and, in many instances educated him for freedom, we claim also that liberty is an inalienable right, and that every creature of the Almighty is entitled to his due share of it."

Take another instance. The Quincy, Illinois, Herald, a zealous Buchanan paper, has the following:

"The South has assorted, and will maintain its equality in the Union. The men in the South, even when they differ on the abstract question of Slavery in the general, say to the Federal Government, the common agent of all the States, "You know no difference between the property and institutions of the South and those of the North. Be Slavery right or wrong in the abstract, you, as equal agents of slaveholders, are BOUND TO SEE THAT IT IS ADMITTED, LIKE ANY OTHER PROPERTY, INTO ALL THE TERRITORIES OF THE UNION, AND EQUALLY SECURED AND PROTECTED, AFTER SUCH ADMISSION. ☞ANY GROUND SHORT OF THAT IS ABOLITION—IS AN INSULT, A WRONG, AND A ROBBERY OF THE SOUTH.

The Presidential Electors.

The Electors are chosen on the same day in all the States, "the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November," which this year falls on the 4th.

As soon as the result is ascertained, the Governor of each State notifies its Electors that they are chosen, and summons them to the State Capitol on the first Wednesday of December. This year it will be the 3d of the month.

On that day they assemble in the Capitols of their respective States. If any are absent from sickness, death or resignation, those present proceed to fill their places by ballot.

They then vote for President, each rising as his name is called and announcing whom he votes for. A vote for Vice-President is then taken in the same way.

Three certificates of the result are next drawn up. They are all signed by each of the Electors in turn.

Then they elect by ballot a Special Messenger to carry one of these certificates to the President of the U. S Senate at Washington. Another is sent to him by mail. The third is deposited in the hands of the U. S. District Judge of the District where they meet.

On the second Wednesday in February, the President of the U. S. Senate, at Washington, in the presence of the House of Representatives, opens the certificates which he has received, and counts the votes, of which there are in all 296. The persons having a majority of them are declared elected President and Vice-President of the United States.

If no person has a majority, the House of Representatives divide themselves into Electoral Committees, by States, and vote for a President, each State having one vote only. The members from each State first ballot among themselves to determine for whom its vote shall be cast, and then cast it accordingly. There are but thirty-one votes in all, and if the members from any State are equally divided, its vote is not cast at all.

Then, whoever gets the majority of these 31 votes is declared elected President. If no one gets a majority no one is elected. And the balloting may then go on, voting till the 4th of March.

Meanwhile the Senate elects a Vice-President in similar manner.

If the House of Representatives fails to elect a President before the 4th of March, on which day their terms of office expire, and the House adjourns, then the Vice-President who has been elected by the Senate, acts as President just as if the President was dead.

Veritable Buchaniers.

There is a thug, Harry, which thou hast often heard of, and it is known to our land by the name of pitch; this pitch, as ancient writers do report, doth defile; so doth the company thou keepest.—HENRY IV., PART II., ACT 3, SCENE IV.

If "a man may be known by the company he keeps," a candidate may be known by the character of his supporters.

Look at the Buchanan forces as they march to the polls. Preston S. Brooks, the Congressional bully, "leads the column." Behind him come the mob that drove the booksellers from Mobile—the gang that threatened the life of Underwood, of Virginia, and the rowdies that stoned the Republican meeting in Baltimore. They are all for Buchanan.

Next come the ballot stuffers and gamblers of California, under the lead of F. P. Herbert, the Congressional murderer. They are all for Buchanan, every one.

Then follow the Border Ruffians, the house burners, highway robbers and lynchers of Platte county, Missouri, marshalled by Col. David Atchison, "General" Stringfellow and Sheriff Jones. They are Buchanan to the core.

After them come the nine-wived Mormons, led on by "Prophet" Brigham Young. Every lecherous soul of them, if he had a vote, would cast it for James Buchanan.

There go the Slave catchers—Alberti, the kidnapper, Judge Kane, the imprisoner of Passmore Williamson, and the whole body of professional men and women hunters. Poll every slave pen from the "Eastern shore" to the mouth of the Mississippi, and you will find the vote unanimous for Buchanan.

Here are the Filibusters—Cuban, Mexican and Nicaraguan. The whole of the great Army who held Thieving to be no Robbery, are in the Buchanan ranks.

But the Press is for Free Speech, and so goes mainly for Fremont. The Pulpit is for Religion and Morality, and so is largely for Fremont. The Merchants are for Peace and Prosperity, and hence support Fremont. The Colleges honor Discovery and Wise Polity, and so uphold Fremont. The Bar is for the enforcement of Justice, and of course must favor Fremont. In a word, the Republican is a party of law, the Democracy a party of license. Rogues dread Fremont as they do the Sheriff, but strike hands with Buchanan as they would with a venal turnkey.

"DEMOCRATIC" JEWELRY.—At a meeting in Fremont, Mass., Mr. Patterson, the editor of Mr. Park's paper at Parkville, the types and presses for which were destroyed by a pro-slavery mob last year, made a speech, and by way of giving material and tangible illustration of the tender mercies of the Pierce Banditti in Kansas, exhibited a box of what he called "democratic jewelry."

Great was the curiosity of the people to see what sort of jewelry this could be, especially as the pseudo democratic party pretend, with a sort of pious ostentation and boasting, to have a contempt for dress and jewelry. All eyes were intent upon the box. It was opened, and lo, and behold! out came a clanking chain and heavy iron ball, which rattled with ominous and dread ful sound in the ears of American citizens.

These very chains had been padlocked to the feet of Jason Brown, a citizen of Pennsylvania, who had gone to Kansas to better his fortune, and in the pursuit of happiness. He, with five others, had been manacled and arrested by Sheriff Jones without warrant or authority, upon the mere suspicion of being in favor of Freedom for Kansas. Jason Brown has been a democrat, too, and had voted for Pierce in Pennsylvania; and these horrid chains showed how these false democrats treat, not only free born American citizens, but their own friends, their own supporters, democrats themselves, if they rebel against the pro-slavery platform, and do not "go the whole" for them in any and every atrocity. The minds of the people, at sight of this "democratic jewelry" were worked up to the highest pitch of burning indignation. They would not be known men or Americans had it not been so.—Rochester Dem.

IOWA COUNTY REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS.—The Republicans of Iowa held their county Convention, and also the Senatorial Convention for the district comprising Iowa and Richland, on Tuesday, the 21st, at Dodgeville. The following ticket was nominated:

For Senator, L. W. Joiner.
Sheriff—George Messersmith.
Register—James Evans.
Clerk of the Board—John W. Weston.
District Attorney—L. H. D. Crane.
Clerk of the Court—Mark Corrin.
Treasurer—Joseph Smith.
Surveyor—J. B. Whiteiow.
Coroner—Mathew Goldsworthy.
Thomas Stevens is the candidate for the Assembly in the North District, Thomas S. Allen in the South District.

A Mineral Point correspondent, who is well posted in the political condition of that section, says that the prospects of the Republicans are bright in Iowa and Richland.—Madison Journal.

The Glorious Reserve!

The following are very nearly the Republican majorities for the Western Reserve. The majorities are not all official, but the total will be but slightly varied. Look at it, and resolve that on the 4th of November it shall be over 20,000 for the friend of Freedom and the Rights of Man.

Buchanan Disunionists.

South Carolina, that model democratic state, where property qualifications are required for Elector, as well as for representative, and the people are not allowed to vote for Governor, or President, has just elected six members of Congress, who are all Buchanan men and all in favor of dis olving the Union. Hear Mr. MILES, the member elect from the Charleston District:

Mr. Miles said that his own political faith was summed up in a few words. He had for many years held up in but one party—a Southern party. He had from his boyhood admired the position of one of Carolina's wisest statesmen, the object of whose life had been to promote this "union of the South for the sake of the South." He believed in a southern confederacy, as ultimately the only effectual remedy for the evils and wrongs under which we are suffering, and the true means of developing our resources.

The Gale Yesterday—Damage to Propellers, Vessels, &c.

The gale was severe all day, yesterday, and the waves in the bay presented a grand sight to those who chose to face the driving rain to look at them. The wind blew from the eastward until towards evening, when it veered to the N. E. and came in with greater violence.

Two unknown vessels rode out the day in the bay at anchor, and did not seem to have dragged much.

Early in the morning, the schooner G. D. Norris was found to have dragged her anchors, and to be going towards the shore in the vicinity of Higby's Pier. By good management and good fortune, a rope was thrown out from near the outer end of the pier, and cables were made fast to the pier, and she rode out the day, though she pounded hard on the bottom in the trough of the waves. The Norris, we understand, has been ashore before on her upward trip, and jetted part of her cargo of railroad iron.

The propeller Globe, round up, with a large cargo of merchandize, in coming into the harbor in the morning, struck the bar between the pier, and knocked off a part of her stem, and her rudder post, making a leak through which the water entered freely. A steam pump was put aboard, and she was raised enough to be brought inside of the piers, where she lay at night, with eight ft. water in her hold. She has on board about 1 000 tons merchandize for this port, which the Clerk says is on deck and uninjured.

The new propeller Allegany, built here last winter, had the hardest fate. She was bound down with a cargo of wheat, &c., from Chicago. In trying to come in, she struck the bar in the trough of the waves, and swung over against the inside of the south pier, near the outer end. Her stern was made fast to the pier, and she lay there pounding badly at 5 o'clock. Her cargo was already partly thrown overboard, and the vessel seemed to be in great danger.

The propeller Ogdensburgh shifted cargo in the gale, before coming in, and has entered protest.

The wreck of the Nebraska, sunk in the bay a week ago, is broken up, and part of the hull and spars have floated into the river.

The following vessels were in the river, yesterday, between Walker's Pt. Bridge and the entrance:

Steamers Traveller and Huron

Propellers Forest Queen, Mt. Vernon, Young American, (on the railway,) Prairie State, Ogdensburgh, besides the Globe and Allegany above mentioned.

Schooners H. Norton, P. Dolan, Arrow, C. North Castle, Julia Smith, Indus, Fannie & Floy, A. P. Dutton, and two or three other lumber vessels which we could not recognize.

Chills and Fever.

TO THOSE who are afflicted with this disagreeable and taxing malady, we would state, that after years of both enlightening research, a medicine has been discovered which will, in every case, effect a certain and permanent cure of this dreaded disease. It is not a quack nostrum prepared to extract money from sufferers, for the proprietor offers to refund the money if a cure is not effected after following the directions. He is assured by the evidence of hundreds of cures which they have effected, that this medicine is in reality the remedy so long desired in the Western country. This valuable medicine is prepared in the form of a pill, from the bark of a shrub, which has proved to be a perfect antidote to Malaria. They are simple and plain in their nature, powerful and active in their operation, and perfectly harmless to the system, having no other than a specific effect upon the disease which is truly wonderful. Some persons have stated that these pills must contain arsenic, or some powerful mineral, owing to their quick effect in curing this disease. The proprietor would state that he will pay one thousand dollars to any chemist who will find one particle of mineralin this composition.

Certificates of cures from persons of the highest respectability can be obtained by calling at the Drug Store of HENRY PESS, Jr., No. 195 East Water street.

N. B. One great recommendation for these pills are, that they only require about five to effect a cure. Enquire for THAYER'S OMEGA PILL, for the immediate cure of chills and fever or intermittent fevers of every description. Prepared and sold wholesale and retail by FRED. W. THAYER, 607 Washington street, Boston.

Agent in Milwaukee, HENRY PESS, Jr., may20-d95dfm No. 195 East Water street.

RECOVERING from the effects of Fever, Bilious Diseases, or long continued illness of any kind, will find Carter's Spanish Mixture the only remedy which will revive their drooping constitutions, expel all bad humors from the blood, excite the liver to a prompt and healthy action, and by its tonic properties, restore the patient to life and vigor.

We can only say TRY IT. A single bottle is worth all the so called Sarsaparillas in existence. It contains no Mercury, Opium, or any other noxious or poisonous drug, and can be given to the youngest infant without hesitation.

See the certificates of wonderful cures around the bottles. More than five hundred persons in the City of Richmond, Va., can testify to its good effects.

The Fremonters of the Fifth Ward meet to-night, to nominate a candidate for the Assembly. Let there be a full turn out, and after nominating a good man, let our friends go to work in earnest and elect him.

POLICE COURT, OCTOBER 24.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

John Haggerty, drunk and disorderly, fined $3; Hans Johnson, violating bridge ordinance, fined $2; Henry Mahler, obstructing sidewalk, fined $3; Charles Miller, charged with assault and battery upon George Schon, was found not guilty and discharged; Henrietta Miller, charged with assault and battery upon George Schon, was found guilty and fined $5 and costs.

Charles F. Timmerman was tried on a charge of disorderly conduct, found not guilty, and discharged.

CIRCUIT COURT, OCT. 24.

JUDGE RANDALL PRESIDING.

A suit is pending in the Circuit Court, in which Harvey Williams brings a suit against the City of Milwaukee, claiming $12,000, alleged to be the damages sustained by his wife, Sarah A. Williams, by slipping on the sidewalk, on the East side of Main street, between Mason and Oneida streets, on the 20th of last January. The knee of the left leg was dislocated and other injuries are alleged to have been sustained. Cause in progress.

Motion submitted for a new trial in the case of Kane vs. Ferguson; not yet argued.

SAVAGE ASSAULT AND BATTERY UPON A NORWEGIAN THURSDAY NIGHT.—A Norwegian, whose name we were unable to learn at the time of writing this notice, was badly beaten by a man named Hanley, in front of Best's Beer Hall, on Thursday night, with a torch staff; his head was badly cut and one of his eyes closed, a deep gash was inflicted on his temple, and he was otherwise injured. The injured man was carried into the next Saloon to Best's, where he was washed and a doctor sent for.

Policeman Wright, who saw part of the transaction, attempted to arrest Hanley, who ran, and was caught at the Post Office by the policeman, and after two or three struggles and tussels the arrested man was taken to the Watch House.

Yesterday morning, the Norwegian was considered in a dangerous condition, and Hanley was held in custody to await the result of the injuries.

FIFTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT.—The Buchanan Convention for the Fifth Senate District, now represented by Jackson Hadley, met yesterday and nominated AUGUSTUS GRUELICH, as their candidate for Senator, by 18 votes against 11 for MORITZ SCHOEFFLER. Mr. GRUELICH is the proprietor of the Seehote, German Catholic paper, and represented the Second Ward in the last Assembly.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS.—The attention of Stockholders in the La Crosse and Milwaukee, and the Milwaukee, Fond du Lac and Green Bay Railroad Companies, is invited to the notice in our advertising columns, calling for the payment of certain instalments on their stock subscription.

THEATRE.—BENEFIT OF MR. COLLINS.—Mr. COLLINS, the favorite Irish Comedian, makes his parting bow to the citizens of Milwaukee this evening, the performances being for his benefit. He appears in the two popular plays of "the Irish Ambassador" and "His last Legs," and will sing a number of his best songs.

ALARM OF FIRE.—The alarm of fire between 10 and 11 o'clock yesterday morning was caused by the burning out of a chimney at the residence of Mr. Marshall, on Cass street. The roof took fire from the flying sparks, but the flames were extinguished before any damage was done.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Convention called at the Court House, last evening, to nominate an Independent Democratic County ticket, has been postponed till Tuesday next, to allow more time for the circulation of notices. See call in our advertising columns.

☞ The following list of letters deposited in the Milwaukee Post Office, is detained for prepayment of postage, Oct. 24, 1856.

NEW JEWELRY ESTABLISHMENT.—MESSRS. HYMAN & DOCTER, at No. 17 Spring Street, are in receipt of a large and well selected assortment of Watches, Jewelry, &c., to which they invite the attention of the public.—Their card will be found in our advertising columns.

REWARD OFFERED.—The Home Insurance Co. offer a reward for the apprehension of a dishonest agent—see their advertisement.

VIOLENT STORM.—The gale which set in Thursday afternoon continued throughout yesterday, the wind increasing in violence and veering from East to North East. The rain fell steadily all day, coming down, at times, in sheets of water. A very heavy sea came rolling into our bay, and thundered upon the western shore of Lake Michigan. We have rarely known a fiercer storm and great apprehensions are felt of extensive damage to our Lake Marine.

☞ Rev. W. W. MOORE, formerly of Albany, will preach in the Baptist Church to-morrow morning, at 10½ o'clock, and in the evening at 7 o'clock.

MASON'S PIANO FORTE ESTABLISHMENT.—Attention is invited to Mr. Mason's advertisement of his fine assortment of Pianos and other instruments, from the best makers.
